Assignment 1 Report

The time cost of our sort algorithm is about o(nlogn). We run input files with different size range from 10kb to 10mb and the execute time is shown below. The scatters are the actual running time of different input files and the curve is the bound of o(nlogn).